Dear Brother Harvey:

Greetings in the
Masters Worthy Name.

I am writing just a few lines to ask a favor of you. I well remember meeting you a few times; first in our home and again in Minnesota. As you attended our recent Conference, I am sure you are interested in the work involved. No, I do not expect to ask any sacrifice from you except your time. I know my words here are rather indefinite but at the suggestion of a friend I am writing you. The need we have reference to, should not interfere with your vocation or work, nor with your schooling or studies, but would rather, as I believe, be an asset to you in your spiritual and scholastic attainments
(over)

If you are interested I would be glad to give you all the information you may need concerning this work.

I am not on the Committee but I was authorized by members of the Committee to make this contact with you. A personal interview with you would have been much better, but as this does not seem possible soon so I am just writing instead.

Hoping to receive a favorable reply from you soon, I remain,

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

A. J. Beachy.
